Shopping & Fashion

Every year in Cyprus we have fashion week. This year's fashion week was on the 19th to 21st of April, 2019 and took place at the Old Municipal Market of Nicosia. The aim of the Fashion Revolution Cyprus week, is to make consumers aware of the manufacturing process, to promote slow fashion movement and inspire consumers to shop consciously and buy something unique. Local designers, artisans and artists, including the community of Agora Project, joined forces in a celebration of solidarity and love for fashion. A fashion catwalk also took place, presenting the innovative and sustainable designers of Cyprus.

The different towns and many traditional villages all over Cyprus have their own local markets from which you can buy hand made products. For example in Lefkara village is famous for lace and silver. Lefkara is the homeland of the island's traditional embroidery, the Cypriot famous lace which is called "lefkaritiko". Besides embroidering that is thriving for several decades, another important craft that is flourishing is the silversmith's craft.
